Provider Profile

Information provided by the provider describing their agency:

ARI of Connecticut, Inc. is a non-profit organization founded in 1952 and offers services to people who have a developmental disability. Its mission is "Enriching the lives of people with disabilities and their families by enabling them to achieve their fullest potential at home, at work, and in the community." This mission statement depicts the organization's commitment to excellence. ARI – Always Reaching for Independence always recognizes the giftedness of each person and the unique capacity of persons receiving services, its staff and volunteers. Its commitment to strive for excellence is demonstrated by receiving accreditation with CARF – The Rehabilitation Commission. ARI is governed by a volunteer board of directors consisting of parents, a client representative and members of the professional and corporate community.

ARI of Connecticut, Inc. offers group day supports, individualized day supports, individualized home supports, respite care, residential habilitation CLA, recreation and leisure time opportunities and supported employment in Stamford, Darien, Ridgefield, Norwalk and Greenwich. Over 100 people are supported.
